5. [ ] - GLC) Raymond Colley, on the staff of Representative Pat Jennings (D., Va.), called to say that Mr. Jennings would like some guidance from the Agency that might assist him in his contacts with Mr. McAfee, the attorney representing Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers. Colley said that McAfee, whom he identified as being with the "opposition party" has become somewhat upset by the Congressman's reply to a previous letter in which he raised questions concerning legal representation for Gary Powers. Colley said Mr. Jennings would like to know who represents who in this situation and who will be representing Gary Powers when he appears before congressional committees. McAfee apparently is pushing the point with Jennings that Powers' rights must be protected when he appears on the hill.

I advised Colley that the questions which he raised were not completely settled at this point but that as the President had indicated Gary Powers was cooperating with the Government voluntarily and believed that his cooperation was in the best interest of the Government. I also added that Powers was a free agent, that we had received no indication from him that he desired to have McAfee represent him. I told Colley that if Mr. Jennings should desire anything further on this, Mr. Warner would be pleased to discuss the matter with him early next week before Powers makes an appearance before a congressional committee if, indeed, he makes such an appearance. Mr. Colley said he thought this would be most satisfactory and he would pass this on to Mr. Jennings. He added that Jennings would be out of town until Tuesday afternoon. I advised Colley that I could make no guarantees on this basis since the timing of a possible appearance by Powers on the hill was a matter which would be decided by the committees concerned. Colley said he understood.
